

An immersive experience in the Ardennes is:

- Being accompanied by one of our multilingual guides specialising in the region
- Unique guidance full of anecdotes
- A captivating and varied programme
- A tailored experience and personalised advice

Do you want to enjoy an Ardennese experience?

Put your trust in Ardenne Incoming and its forty multilingual guides (French, Dutch, English and German-speaking).

These fine connoisseurs of the regions crossed by the different circuits on offer will accompany you to the four corners of the destination.

Whether for a two-hour guided tour, a full day's excursion, or even a week-long trip, these enthusiasts will ensure you make the most of it because they won't leave anything to chance! They'll tell you their anecdotes and share their knowledge of the region, take you down bucolic paths and show you spectacular panoramic views.

They'll also give you great advice on shopping for local produce. The themes are varied from heritage to history, gastronomy and culture, not to mention nature!

Thanks to Jean-Jacques, Helene, Erik and all the others, you'll not just admire beautiful locations, you'll have a unique and personalised experience!
